

5th WORLD SUMMIT ON ARTS & CULTURE MELBOURNE 2011

3-6 October 2011

Annamari Laaksonen

Annamari is the Research Manager at IFACCA. Prior to IFACCA Annamari worked as researcher and senior programme officer at the Interarts Foundation in Barcelona, Spain (2000-2011). Her work at Interarts consisted of applied research and international cooperation projects in the field of culture, public policies, development and cultural rights. Since 2009 she has also been a consultant at the Open University of Catalunya in a master's programme on cultural management.

Prior to Interarts she was a recipient of a Fulbright scholarship and worked in the Latin American and Caribbean Programme of the Carter Center in Atlanta in 1998-1999. A native of Finland, she has a MSocSc in international politics from the University of Tampere, has conducted PhD studies in international law at the University of Pompeu Fabra and is currently working on her PhD dissertation. She has also lived and worked in Costa Rica.

She is fluent in English, Spanish and Catalan, has a working knowledge of French and can maintain a conversation in several other languages. She is also a founding member of an international kindergarten of shared education and the Scandinavian School of Barcelona initiative. For more detail, see www.connectcp.org/annamariLaaksonen.