

5th WORLD SUMMIT ON ARTS & CULTURE MELBOURNE 2011

3 – 6 October 2011

Anne Dunn

Ms Dunn had a 30 year public service career including as CEO of the Departments of Arts, Local Government and Family & Community Services in SA and the City of Port Phillip in Victoria. She now runs a consulting practice, working in the areas of chairing, facilitation, mediation, community consultation leadership and organizational development.

Her previous board appointments include Deputy Chair, Australia Council; Chair, Community Cultural Development Board; Chair, Australian Government's Regional Women's Advisory Council and she currently chairs the Health Performance Council for the South Australian Government. She was until recently a Director on the Australian Rural Leadership Program.

She is a regular keynote speaker at conferences, appearing as characters appropriate to the event including Mayor Rita Rodeo (from a town somewhere in regional Australia) and Ms Sheila Presley (a woman with a newly found identity).
