

5th WORLD SUMMIT ON ARTS & CULTURE MELBOURNE 2011

3-6 October 2011

Emma Bennison

Emma Bennison is a passionate advocate for artists experiencing disability and disadvantage. Currently the Executive Officer at Access Arts Queensland, Emma combines her experience as a musician and performer with her experience of disability to lead an organisation whose vision is that all Queenslanders are free to participate, create and work in the arts.

Emma is also a professional singer/songwriter and has a Bachelor of Music from the University of Queensland. She performs with her husband in a piano/vocal duo and has released a CD containing original compositions and covers. Emma is also a composer, arranger and private vocal teacher. She is current Chair of Arts Access Australia, the national peak body for arts and disability.
