

5th WORLD SUMMIT ON ARTS & CULTURE MELBOURNE 2011

3 – 6 October 2011

Kiwon Hong

Kiwon Hong is an assistant professor of cultural policy at the Graduate School of Public Policy and Industry at Sookmyung Women's University in Seoul, Korea. A graduate of Seoul National University (B.A. in Aesthetics), New York University (M.P.A), and Yonsei University (Ph.D. in Public Administration), prior to joining the university she had served in public sector as research specialist in cultural policy for the Korea Ministry of Culture, Sports, and Tourism (Korea Culture and Tourism Institute). She has published numerous cultural policy reports for the government and presented scholarly papers at national and international conferences. Her research interests are policy evaluation, cultural diplomacy, and cultural diversity. She has been working closely with Korean National Commission for UNESCO (KNCU) on cultural diversity and multicultural policy issues. Currently she is working on Cultural Compendium Grid for Korean Cultural Policy with KNCU. She continues to validate findings in theory and policy reality by serving at advisory board, evaluative committee, and policy forum related to cultural policy and administration.