

5th WORLD SUMMIT ON ARTS & CULTURE MELBOURNE 2011

3-6 October 2011

Shen Qilan

SHEN Qilan (Dr.) is currently director of the Chinese magazine Art World's editorial department, where she was an overseas journalist 2008-2010 in Germany. She also serves as a lecturer at the Shanghai Institute of Visual Art of Fu Dan University. She is a keen observer of global contemporary art.

- As project director for large-scale Art World Expo special project "Page the World - 2010 International Art Media Sharing Platform", Shen Qilan managed cooperation with international art media from Germany, Switzerland and ARTE TV.

-Shen Qilan is responsible for the education programme of the 2011 project "Future Pass - Collateral Event of the 54th Venice Biennial" involving over 100 international artists and is a speaker in 5th World Summit on Arts and Culture in Melbourne, Australia.

-Shen Qilan is advisor and co-author of Europe-China Cultural Compass --Orientation for Cultural Cooperation between China and Europe, a project initiated by European Union National Institutes for Culture, with project partners of EUNIC in China: Goethe-Institute, Danish Cultural Institute, British Council.